

Information Technology Manager

Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, MIS, or similar field required

- Business Administration education or equivalent experience preferred
- Additional education, training, or experience in customer service preferred
- Experience in telecommunications and website administration
- Knowledge of surveillance system strongly encouraged
- Ability to interpret, understand, and follow oral or written instructions accurately and efficiently
- Strong leadership skills with the ability to coach and mentor others preferred